Habitat for Humanity Lunches

PROVIDE LUNCH FOR THE VOLUNTEERS
AT THE HEN BUILD

If you aren't comfortable with a hammer or painting, you can still help at this year's Habitat Build. On three separate days this spring, CBC is providing lunches for the volunteers helping at the HEN Build site this year. Each volunteer day, a lunch is provided for about 12 workers. Snacks and bottled drinks are also important for the volunteers as they are hard at work finishing this home for the Shabani-Chibalonza family. The dates Central is providing lunch are April 27, May 18, and May 24. You can help by making lunch, picking up a catering order, or providing drinks and snacks.
